HÅKAN MALMLUND APPOINTED AS HEAD OF CORPORATE FINANCE AT NEWSEC

M.Sc.(Econ.) Håkan Malmlund has been appointed as Head of Corporate Finance at Newsec Advice Oy as of March 15th 2010. During the past five years Håkan Malmlund has been Head of Real Estate Services at KPMG Finland and he has acted as advisor in several major real estate transactions and company reorganizations. Prior to joining KPMG Håkan was CFO of SATO Corporation.

“We are very happy to have Håkan strengthening our expertise in restructuring and taxation. Due to the financial crisis the real estate investment market demands a lot of restructuring both in financing and ownerships. This appointment excellently supports the development of our service concept”, says Juhani Reen, Managing Director at Newsec Advice Oy.

“Many companies and public sector organizations will have an increasing need to enhance their performance and financial structure. I think we will see a lot of financial and corporate restructurings as well as actions to release capital tied up in real estates. I have had the pleasure to work with Newsec for several years. Their pro-active mode of operation and competent employees generate an inspiring environment for new challenges and developing new structuring solutions”, says Håkan Malmlund.
